Self-guided distance tour | 8/7 | approx. 290 km |

DESCRIPTION

A cycle tour with exciting nature experience: First the Enns is a small stream, which curls through the Styrian Ennstal Valley. In the Gesäuse national park the thunderous water force through canyons and offers in the Kalkalpen national park a green ribbon. In Steyr the river Steyr and the Enns unify them and flows in the direction of the Danube in an unhurried way.

HIGHLIGHTS

The mountainous landscapes of Salzburg and Styria transform into flatter terrain in Upper Austria. The Enns River flows through a spectacular gorge in the Gesäuse region, and in the museums of Steyr and Enns, you can immerse yourself in the history.

DIFFICULTY LEVEL MEDIUM

You have to manage some (partly steep) ascents. On some parts of the route you have to bike on streets with more traffic. This particular bike tour is of medium difficulty. On the slightly hilly Enns cycle path, With normal fitness condition we guarantee a unique bike-experience.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Radstadt

Individual arrival and handing out of travel documents. Take time for a short walk in Radstadt “the old city of the mountains”.

Day 2: Radstadt – Gröbming

Follow the still narrow River Enns to Styria and marvel at the breath taking Dachstein South Wall, before you arrive in the ski world cup town Schladming. After a short, ascent you continue through the Valley till you arrive to Gröbming.

Day 3: Gröbming – Admont

You cycle comfortable through the broad valley. From a distance the edged mountain-prongs of the mountain range Gesäuse salutes. In Admont you have the possibility to visit the biggest monastery library of the world.

Day 4: Admont – St. Gallen

It becomes close. The Enns flows with the skittish “Gesäuse” through the national park. The canyon (20 km) is one of the most phenomenal Austrian nature spectacles. Afterwards you cycle via Weng and Buchauer Sattle to St. Gallen.

Day 5: St. Gallen – Großraming

The impressive castle Gallenstein retires you to upper Austria. The amazing forested mountains configure the Kalkalpen national park. Endangered species, like lynx and eagles are native here. For the ascent from St. Gallen to Mooshöhe, take the included bus shuttle.

Day 6: Großraming – Steyr

In the years the Enns was a concernment for the iron trade. With brails they shipped the raw ore the craftsman for knifes and so called Feitel (a special clasp knife). There are a lot of museums which makes this come alive.

Day 7: Steyr – Linz

Because of the confluence with the river Steyr the Enns sedate to a handsome stream, which pass sedately the same-named town. Enns is one of the oldest towns in Austria, which was still settled by the Celts and Romans. The museum Lauriacum represent this era. Along the Danube bike path to Linz, provincial capital of Upper Austria.
