Mur Cycle Path

FROM GENTIAN TO RIESLING WINE.

The morning of a cycle holiday on the Mur Cycle Path begins with a look out of your hotel window. What do you see? Green hills and forests, for which Styria is famous, and small charming Austrian towns and villages. A little further along the route you meet the Mur every day and it accompanies you to Bad Radkersburg. The special thing about it: you're always travelling a little downhill on the Mur! The Austrian part of the Mur Cycle Path is 330 kilometres long and begins in St Michael in Lungau in Salzburg. On the seventh day of your cycling holiday you can watch the landscape change – from the mountainous Lungau to the lush green hills of Styria.

Details about cycling holidays on the Mur Cycle Path

From Salzburg to the South Styrian thermal region, from Lungau mountain cheese to Styrian pumpkin seed oil: go on a week of cycling along the Mur Cycle Path with Eurobike. The bike tour without luggage stops at the best spots on the path, so you can take in all the cultural and culinary offerings. How about a visit to the beer museum in Murau? Or a day dedicated to art in Graz with the famous Murinsel? Or would you like an afternoon in one of the cosy taverns? The seven-day cycling holiday has been expertly put together by the Eurobike team, so you won't miss anything worth seeing!

The highlights of the Mur Cycle Path at a glance:

- Quiet places and a lively city: On the cycle tour along the Mur Cycle Path you can enjoy both – small towns and the pulsating state capital of Graz.
- Enjoy the 'Buschenschanken' like the Styrians do: In the typical Buschenschanken you can taste the regional delicacies such as cider and famous Brettlause with roast pork, cheese, pumpkin seed spread and black bread. Numerous Buschenschanken are right on the cycle path!

1

Arrival in St. Michael im Lungau

Recommendation:

Trip to the Spring of the River Mur approx. 55 km

There is little traffic on the way along the river Mur to the national park town Muhr. You will cycle past colourful meadows to the car park Muritzen (transfer possibility for € 70,- for up to 4 people incl. bikes, 5-8 people: € 90 incl. bike). From there, you will cycle uphill on a partly very steep route (gradients of 1 % and 19%) to the Stickler alpine hut. The last part of the way, you will walk to the spring of the river Mur on 1898 metres in altitude (about one hour hike). Then, you will ride your bike downhill back to St. Michael. Transfer possibilities depend on the weather and operate from the end of May at the earliest! Due to varying weather conditions, the information about transfer possibilities is subject to change.

St. Michael – Murau | approx. 55 km

First, you will cycle to Tamsweg (historic market place, pilgrimage church of St. Leonhard). This region is characterised by wood in all its diversity (wood museum St. Ruprecht). Today's destination is the tranquil town of Murau, a medieval beer brewing town with a beer museum, the castle Murau and a beautiful centre.

DAY
3*Murau – Judenburg/surroundings* | approx. 65 km

Today, you will ride your bike through the straits of the Mur valley at the foot of the Lower Tauern Mountains. In Frojach, you will find the Narrow-Gauge Railway Museum, in Frauenburg legendary ruins, and in Sauerbrunn the oldest mineral water source in Styria. Many historic sites can also be seen in Judenburg: the city tower, the former sovereign's castle, town houses and Magdalen Church.

DAY
4*Judenburg/surroundings – Bruck an der Mur/Oberaich* | approx. 60 km

On the fourth day, you will visit Maria Buch (pilgrimage church) and the monastery Seckau (Benedictine abbey). In the old industrial towns, you can clearly see how successful the locals dealt with their past when watching their architectural sites: Well-kept old towns, vibrant pedestrian zones, and interesting museums. In Leoben you can visit the monastery Göss and the Gösser brewery. In Bruck an der Mur you will find interesting sites such as the Schlossberg hill, the Kornmesserhaus and the city hall.

DAY
5*Bruck an der Mur/Oberaich – Graz* | approx. 60 km

First, you will cycle to Frohnleiten (Park Murlend, "Tratschweiberbrunnen" fountain). Then, you will find pure nature along the way: old farmhouses and orchards and high cliffs. You will come across Rabenstein castle, the Lurgrotte caves and the open-air museum Stübing. Styria's capital city, Graz, has lots of attractions: the Schlossberg hill with its clock tower, Eggenberg castle, the country house and the town hall, countless museums and great restaurants.

Cat. B: Star Inn

DAY
6Graz – Mureck | approx. 65 km

In Seggau castle you can visit the Fürstenzimmer (sovereign's room) and art gallery and enjoy some wine in the 300-year-old wine cellar. This way you can get into the right mood for the South Styrian wine road. The church, the city hall, and the ship mill are all worth seeing in Mureck.

DAY
7Mureck – Bad Radkersburg and Departure or Extension

| approx. 25 km

On the short final stage, you will find water of all kinds: the river Mur will guide your way, you can swim in Lake Röksee, you can visit the mineral water spring Peterquelle and relax in the thermal waters of Bad Radkersburg (historic old town with many different architectural styles!). At the end of the day: departure/return transfer; or you can extend your trip, which we recommend in our category A hotel, since the admission to the thermal bath in Bad Radkersburg is included in the price.

Tour character

From the spring of the river Mur to the Slovenian border, the Mur cycle path inclines by a total of 1,700 metres in altitude on a length of about 365 kilometres. From St. Michael to Bad Radkersburg you will cycle downhill another 870 metres in altitude. This clearly shows that the Mur cycle path mainly goes downhill. Some slight climbs have to be cycled during the first two stages but you will always find yourself on tranquil bike paths.
