Gherkins Cycle Path

ENDLESS WATERWAYS IN THE SPREEWALD.

The Spreewald is one of the most fascinating landscapes in Europe. Countless natural water arms wind through vast meadows and forests and pass through picturesque villages. Explore the beauty and uniqueness of the region up close on a bicycle! The extensive network of cycle paths and the flat routes invite you to leisurely cycling. This bike tour takes you on the Gurkenradweg through the Upper and Lower Spree Forest. From the university town of Cottbus you will cycle through the Spreewald, which is often called the "Venice of the North". The unique landscape with its dense forests around the small and large water arms of the Spreewald will inspire you. The adjacent pond landscapes invite you to individual detours from the Gurkenradweg during your bike tours.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival Cottbus

The "green city" of Cottbus awaits your visit with the world-famous landscape park Branitz of Prince Hermann von Pückler-Muskau, the Spreeaupark and the zoo.

2

Cottbus – Lübbenau | approx. 50 km

Today's cycling stage takes you to Lübbenau, where you can explore an old town worth seeing. On the way in Vetschau, a detour to the white stork center is worthwhile. In Lehde, a listed Spreewald village, you will learn more about life in the Spreewald in the open-air museum and then cycle to Lübbenau.

3

Lübbenau – Golßen – Lübben | approx. 70 km

You cycle from Lübbenau first to Lübben and then into the western Lower Spree Forest. A loop via Golßen finally leads you back to Lübben - today's destination.

4

Excursion Northern Lower Spree Forest | approx. 50 km

Experience nature and enjoy active recreation on a round trip through the Lower Spree Forest. Via Lubolz, northwest of Lübben, the trail leads you to Krausnick with its Kreuzkirche church. The nearby Wehlaberg is with 144 m height the highest elevation of the Krausnick mountains. From the wooden lookout tower you have a comprehensive panoramic view over the vastness of the Spreewald. Passing the Köthener See and Groß Wasserburg, you will finally pass various groups of ponds and reach Lübben again.

DAY
5*Lübben – Burg* | approx. 30 km

At the end of your bike tour, explore the idyllic Spree Forest community of Burg. It originated as a scattered settlement in the 6th century and represents the largest village in Germany in terms of area.

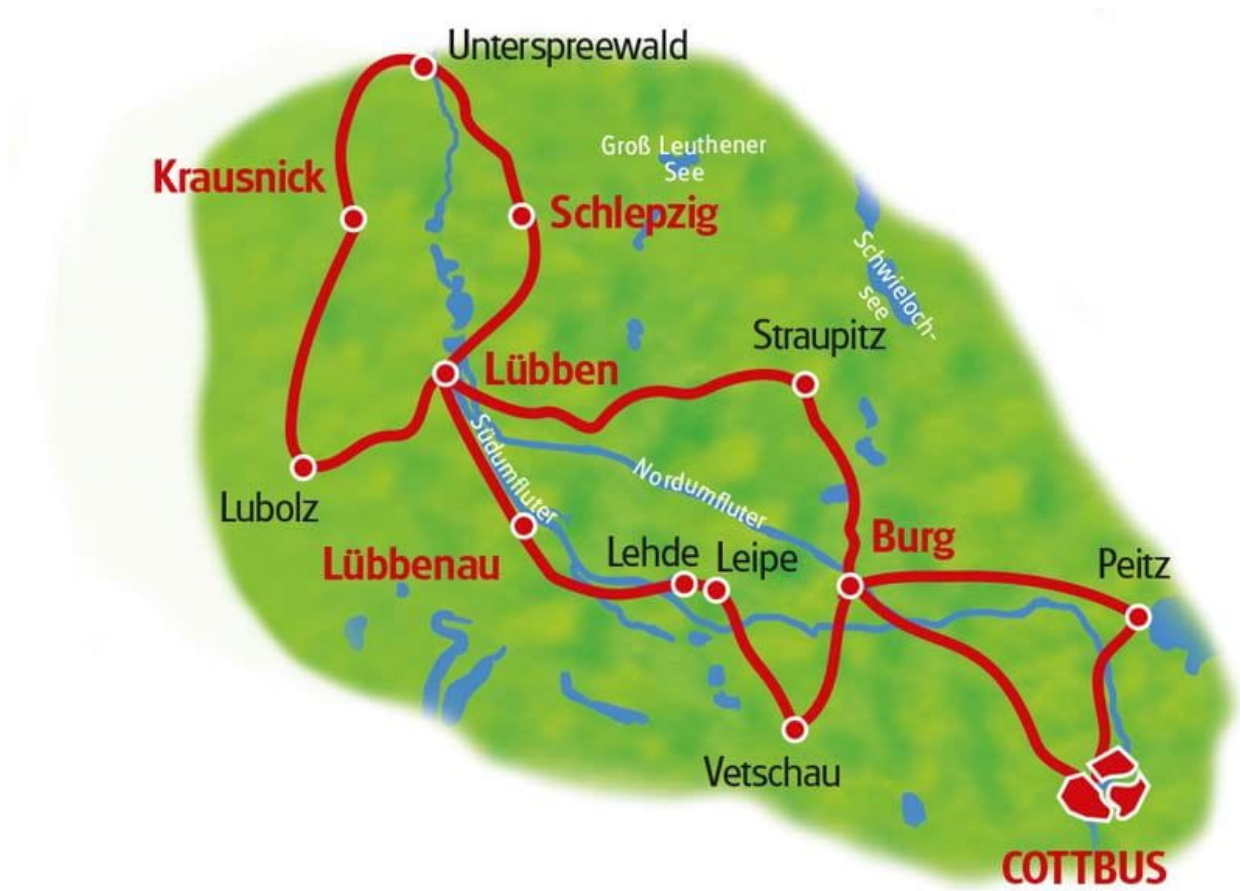

DAY
6*Burg – Cottbus* | approx. 40 km

On this stage you cycle through the Peitzer Teichlandschaft back to Cottbus. Covering 1,000 hectares, the pond area is home to numerous animal and plant species, some of which are endangered.

DAY
7*Departure or extension*
