Or the millennia-old cultural landscape that the Etruscans appreciated. On a cycling holiday you are right in the middle of Italian culinary indulgence, and Maremma is fully committed to gentle tourism.

Details about cycling holidays in the Maremma

The seven-day cycle tour takes you to the interior of Italy and directly to the sea. The fine sandy beach near Talamone makes it very difficult to resist jumping into the water. In total you cover 265 kilometres by bike and can be sure you won't have missed one southern Tuscany highlight on your cycling holiday.

Highlights of the centre based tour in Tuscany at a glance:

The downs and Capalbio | approx. 60 km

Maremma presents itself already today from its most beautiful side with soft rolling hills. During the entire route you will keep on enjoying amazing views onto olive groves, vineyards, vines and wheat fields. Capalbio, this cultural destination, is very tranquil and is popular with artists. Here you have plenty of options for a break. Enjoy a glass of red wine whilst gazing into the distance – you might even get a glimpse of the sea!

The medieval Grosseto | approx. 50 km + train journey

Spectacular views of the surrounding downs will accompany you today along the way to Grosseto. There is only one longer ascent to tackle, otherwise the route leads mainly downhill. Amongst 4 cities in Italy with a completely intact city wall, the main town of the Maremma region is one of them. Take a leisurely stroll across the Piazza Sale to the Piazza Dante and to the San Lorenzo cathedral. Pick one of the numerous charming and vibrant cafés and restaurants for a rest before you take the train back towards the hotel.

The nature park on the Tyrrhenian Sea | approx. 55 km

Today is the day! The sea finally awaits you! Make sure you take a break at the fine sandy beach and enjoy the turquoise-blue water. If you do not fancy a swim, simply continue cycling a little further into the medieval Talamone, the former seaport of Siena! Then you cycle on remote paths through the nature park of Maremma, with only the sound of the ‚singing‘ cicadas along the way.

DAY
5*The Etruscans in Pitigliano*

approx. 65 km + transfer

Today wonderful roads lead you through breath-taking landscape to the Etruscans, who populated the Marammea region over 2500 years ago. It is incredible what they created such a long time ago! After passing the excavation sites in Sovana, you reach Pitigliano after an exciting descent. The town appears to come right out of the rock, as if the houses were natural growths protruding from the tuff. This makes an incredible photo motif! In the evening, you take a bus transfer back to your accommodation.

DAY
6*Morellino-wine around Scansano*

approx. 35 km

Today's stage is all about wine. Since only a few years the Morellino is the new 'star' on the Tuscan 'wine-sky'. With a deep red colour and a vibrant bouquet, you have definitely earned a glass of it at your arrival at the Piazza in Scansano at the latest. You have now reached the highest point of this tour and from here back to the hotel it is only going to be downhill! Enjoy the fabulous views over the colourful hills all the way to the sea once more!
