Strasbourg - Mainz

RHINE CYCLE PATH III

Searched, found! The cycling holiday on the Rhine Cycle Path between Strasbourg and Mainz is particularly suitable for anyone and everyone. Simple route guidance without major climbs, and mostly along the Rhine, charming places and enough time for sightseeing and enjoyment. This is what a Eurobike cycle tour looks like for newcomers. Thanks to the extensive route material, you can get an idea of the route before you travel. And Eurobike also takes care of the luggage transfer, so that you can easily cycle through western Germany during the day.

Details about cycling holidays on the Rhine cycle path

With more than 1,230 kilometres by bike, the Rhine Cycle Path is one of the longest cycle paths. Explore 295 kilometres of it on a cycling holiday with Eurobike! Most of the time you enjoy the idyllic view of the banks of the Rhine, but sometimes you find yourself in the tributaries, where nature is untouched. Tip: Be sure to taste the fruity Riesling in Nierstein am Rhein – it is one of the best in the world!

Highlights of the Rhine Cycle Path to Mainz at a glance:

- Suitable for families and beginners: The Rhine Cycle Path mostly runs on good cycle paths directly on the river or on gravel paths in the Rhine countryside. This cycle path can really be mastered by everyone, so it is ideal for families and children or for the first cycling holiday.
- Mild climate: The mild climate in Alsace, Baden and the Palatinate ensures even more cycling fun. The mild temperatures are not only good for the grape vines that thrive in these regions, they also mean your cycling holiday can start in early April.
- Rich culture: Strasbourg, Heidelberg, Worms, Mainz – these cities offer cultural highlights that make your cycling holiday even more beautiful.

DAY

Rastatt – Germersheim | approx. 60 km

Today you cycle idyllically along the old Rhine arms through what seems like untouched nature. Then you head through the biggest nature protection area in the Palatinate, the Hördter Rheinauen until you get to the former fortress city of Germersheim. The newly formed Rhine river bank and the unhurried centre of Germersheim provide some amusement.

6*Worms – Nierstein* | approx. 55 km

You will comfortably cycle along the river Rhine. Lots of agriculture will accompany you on this stage. Everything that tastes good gets grown here! At times you will cycle along the old Rhine arms today and then soon afterwards you will end up on the other side of the river bank where you will see the first vines. Afterwards there are only a few more kilometres and then one more crossing over the river Rhine until you get to the charming wine-making village, Nierstein. You should definitely try a glass of Riesling in the evening!

DAY
7*Nierstein – Mainz* | approx. 20 km

Today's stage is short giving you lots of free time to enjoy. Shortly after Nierstein the cycle path goes through the vineyards. Take a view across the Rhine valley – the impressive steep wine-growing slopes and the large river are the lifelines for this region. The cycle path runs along the Rhine's river bank and then into the centre of Mainz. The imperial cathedral as well as many other attractions are the magnets attracting many visitors here from both close and far away.
