NATURE, ART AND PLEASURE: VARIETY IN THE VELUWE

Forests, heathland and dunes as well as over 100 lakes characterise the Veluwe in Dutch Gelderland. The Hoge Veluwe National Park, populated by lush wildlife, is part of this charming region with its diverse landscapes. Therefore, this rally in the region is a very good idea for all nature lovers. But not only for them. Anyone who loves historical towns and buildings will be happy to visit places such as HARderwijk and Amersfoort as well as the Het Loo Castel near Apeldoorn. Some beaches attract bathers and water sports enthusiasts. Art lovers, for example, can visit one of the largest Van Gogh collections in the world in the Veluwe and gourmets can enjoy a range of Dutch specialities. Experience one of the most diverse regions in the Netherlands.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Garderen

Individual arrival to Garderen. You will receive your bike (if booked) as well as important information for your bike trip.

DAY
2

Harderwijk | approx. 55 km

Today you reach the Hanseatic city of Harderwijk, which with its many historic buildings lies charmingly on the coast of Lake Veluwe. If you feel like a swim, use the beautiful beach for a relaxing stay. The way back leads you through the Ermeloer Heide with its wide and charming landscape.

3

Amersfoort | approx. 50 - 65 km

You cycle through the forest and heath of the western Veluwe into the open, more urban landscape near Amersfoort. Amersfoort has a well-preserved medieval town centre, numerous historic buildings and monuments, canals and cosy restaurants and cafés. Passing the Stoutenburg, your way leads back to the hotel. From Amersfoort you can take the train.

4

Hoge Veluwe with the Kröller-Müller-Museum

| approx. 50 km

Nature and art form a charming mixture in the Hoge Veluwe National Park. The forests, moor lakes and heathland are home to many protected animals and plants. The visitor centre reveals a lot about the history, culture and nature of the park. A place of art is the Kröller-Müller-Museum, which among other things has the second largest Van Gogh collection in the world and a very beautiful sculpture garden.

DAY
5*Apeldoorn* | approx. 50 km

Today you can first admire the gardens of Het Loo Castle, one of the most beautiful gardens in Europe. You will then reach Apeldoorn. The city offers you a lively mix of historic buildings such as the Grote Kerk, art sites such as the Museum of Modern Art called CODA, restaurants, shops and natural areas such as the Apenheul Zoo, home to many monkeys. 6. Tag: Abreise oder Verlängerung

DAY
6*Departure or extension*

Tour character

Light to moderately heavy. The route runs mainly along farm tracks, small roads and cycle paths. On the way you will sometimes come across slightly hilly, unpaved forest paths, occasionally also sandy paths. A large part of the routes are covered according to the excellent junction system.
