St. Moritz - Innsbruck

THE BREATH-TAKING CYCLE PATH ON RIVER INN.

Note: Due to the current situation, this tour cannot be booked for 2021.

Switzerland and Austria are a dream team when it comes to panoramic cycling holidays. The cycle tour from St. Moritz to Innsbruck couldn't be more varied – and yet the individual daily stages work together. Your path takes you from elegant St. Moritz over the Engadin to Innsbruck, the city with the golden roof, over eight days. Mountain panoramas alternate with the lush forests of the Swiss National Park, and the cultural offerings are also impressive. And the culinary indulgence? It plays a very big role in the Engadine and also in Tyrol. You have the delightful choice between the famous Engadine Nusstorte, Bündnerfleisch, Tyrolean Gröstl and numerous other specialities.

Details about cycling holidays from St. Moritz to Innsbruck

The panoramas along the Inn are astonishing and await you on an eight-day cycling holiday between St. Moritz and Innsbruck. Stand still and let the impressions sink in – and take them home with you as lasting memories. The lakeside cycle tour is particularly idyllic right at the beginning of the tour as it takes you to the Inn's origin.

Highlights of the cycle tour on the Inn at a glance:

- Picturesque Engadin: The villages of the Engadin, such as Zernez, Susch or Lavin seem to have sprung from an old novel, just like the deep green forests and valleys. The fashionable St. Moritz shines in its very own splendour.
- Warm-hearted Tyrol: On the fifth day of your cycling holiday you cross the border between Switzerland and Austria and immediately feel the Tyrolean hospitality.
- Cycle paths along the Inn: The Inn rises at the Maloja Pass in the Engadine and flows into the Danube in Passau. You don't go as far as the river, but you cycle along it a bit to Innsbruck.
