Danish Baltic Sea

CYCLE TOUR AROUND LITTLE BELT.

The strait between the Jutland peninsula and the island of Funen, known as the Little Belt, is a protected area that has turned out to be a true dream destination for our cycle tours. Because of the perfect cycle paths, the beautiful Baltic Sea and the picturesque islands almost seem to have sprung straight out of a picture book. Enjoy the sight of fjord-like landscapes, beautiful beaches and steep cliffs. And if you're lucky, you might even spot a porpoise. Isn't that a wonderful prospect?

Details about cycling holidays on the Danish Baltic Sea

The mostly flat, sometimes slightly hilly route around the Little Belt is a real pleasure for both beginners and experienced cyclists. The faster cyclists simply have more time to enjoy the wonderful landscape and small towns.

Highlights of the cycle tour on the Baltic Sea at a glance:

- Whale watching on the island of Funen: The island of Funen is known for its harbour porpoises. The friendly mammals are closely related to dolphins and put a smile on everyone's face as they enjoy watching their goings-on.
- Gråsten Castle: The summer residence of the royal family is an impressive sight. Unfortunately, the chapel and the park of the castle can only be visited if the royal family is absent.

Useful information about cycling holidays on the Danish Baltic Sea

The daily stages between 40 and 70km lead you, partly along the coast, partly inland around the Little Belt in the Danish Baltic Sea. Look forward to relaxed days of cycling in a Nordic atmosphere!

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Sønderborg

Your cycling holiday in Denmark begins in Sønderborg on the Flensburg Fjord, not far from Germany. Visit the castle of the same name, one of the oldest royal castles in Jutland, built directly on the water

2

Sønderborg – Åbenrå | approx. 35 km

Today's route is relaxed and takes you through forests and wide fields over the Sundewitt peninsula. A visit to Sandbjerg Castle, one of the most elegant palaces in Southern Jutland, is worthwhile. Åbenrå captivates with its charming town houses and craftsmen's houses.

3

Åbenrå – Christiansfeld | approx. 40/70 km

Today's first destination is Haderslev. The medieval old town on the Haderslev dam entices you with cosy cafés and a walk along the reservoir, which dates back to the Middle Ages. Back on your bike, you can choose between two routes: You can take a shorter domestic route or challenge yourself by following the Baltic Sea Cycle Path, the Østersøruten, to the coast, passing the small coast town of Hejlsminde, which is definitely worth a visit, before you reach Christiansfeld.

4

Christiansfeld – Middelfart | approx. 45-60 km

You can choose between two varied routes that take you across fields and forests or along the coast to Kolding. There you are already greeted from afar by Koldinghus Castle, which towers high above the town. Past Kolding Fjord and across Skærbæk you cross the Little Belt on Lillebæltsbroen, a road and railway bridge, just before you reach Middelfart, your destination for today.

DAY
5*Middelfart – Odense* | approx. 55-65 km

Visit the Henner Friisers Hus in Middelfart. It is considered one of the most beautiful half-timbered houses in Denmark. You cycle almost ascent-free through the idyllic landscapes of Funen until you reach Odense.

DAY
6*Odense – Fåborg* | approx. 50 km

Odense is the third largest city in Denmark. The city's most famous son is the writer Hans Christian Andersen. He is commemorated in many places in the city. This stage of your cycle tour takes you along Odense Å via Funen to Fåborg.

DAY
7*Fåborg – Sønderborg* | approx. 35-45 km + ferry ride

With its narrow, cobbled streets, Fåborg is one of the oldest and most idyllic small towns in Denmark. In Bøjden you board the ferry to the island of Als and then cycle via the harbour town of Høruphav to Sønderborg.

DAY
8*Departure or extension*

Tour character

The route is slightly hilly without significant gradients. The cycle paths often lead along the coast. Depending on your desire, mood and cosiness, you can choose between a longer and a shorter distance almost every day.
