Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Coblenz

The heart of the city is situated at the confluence of Moselle River and Rhine River. You should schedule plenty of time for a first shopping tour.

2

Coblenz - St. Goarshausen - Coblenz

| approx. 40 km + boat ride

Bike tour through the Upper Middle Rhine Valley

After breakfast you start your holiday with a glorious boat trip on the Rhine River to St. Goarshausen. The „Loreley“ is a slate rock in Upper Middle Rhine Valley UNESCO World Heritage site but also the name of a mermaid on this rock. According to a legend of the 19th century, this mermaid combed her golden hair and attracted many skippers with her singing. Those men didn't respect the dangerous current anymore, so that the ships were wrecked at the cliffs. You cycle back to your accommodation via the towns Boppard and Rhens. Thereby you pass few castles and palaces which are situated high above the Rhine River.

Coblenz - Nassau - Coblenz

| approx. 50 km + train journey

Cycle trip through the Lahn valley

Today you take the train to Nassau at Lahn. Your route takes you alongside the Lahn River to Bad Ems, where the Romans have also left their traces. Enjoy and relax in the Emser thermal spa. Soon you reach Lahnstein where the Lahn River flows into the Rhine River. Cycle the last section alongside this river until you reach your accommodation. Castles and palaces are also not missing on your way to Coblenz this day.

DAY
4*Coblenz - Cochem - Coblenz*

approx. 50 km + train journey

Bike trip alongside the Moselle River near Coblenz

You start your tour with a short train ride to Cochem. Afterwards you cycle to Moselkern, where you should make a detour to the medieval castle „Burg Eltz“. It's located in the heart of nature and offers breathtaking views and fabulous beauty. Back on the Moselle bike path you pass numerous lovely wine villages, which invite you to a wine tasting. Via Kobern and Gondorf you finally reach your starting point again.

DAY
5*Coblenz - Neumagen-Dhron - Trier*

approx. 40 km + Bus transfer

Cycle tour alongside the Moselle River to Trier

Our driver picks you up directly from the hotel and brings you upstream to Neumagen-Dhron. Cycle a short distance back to Piesport, where you have the possibility to view the Roman cellars from the 3rd century. An educational trail along your route reports on domestic grape variety. In Trier you can experience the history of 2000 years very closely, for example the „Porta Nigra“ as well as the amphitheater.

DAY
6*Trier – Saarburg – Trier*

approx. 50 km

Round trip along the Saar River

Today you get to know the 4th river: the Saar River. you start your roundtrip at the Obermosel river and soon you reach the medieval town of Saarburg with its castle ruin. The route leads you via Tawern and Konz back to Trier.

DAY
7*Trier – Speicher– Trier*

approx. 50 km + Train journey

Through the Kyll valley

Also your last bicycle trip initially starts with a train ride to Speicher. From there it is not far to Bitburg. Today you need to taste beer instead of wine! You cycle back and firstly follow the river Kyll to Pfalzel and then you continue the last distance alongside the Moselle River until you reach Trier again. In the evening you have enough time to review all impressions of this wonderful bike trip.

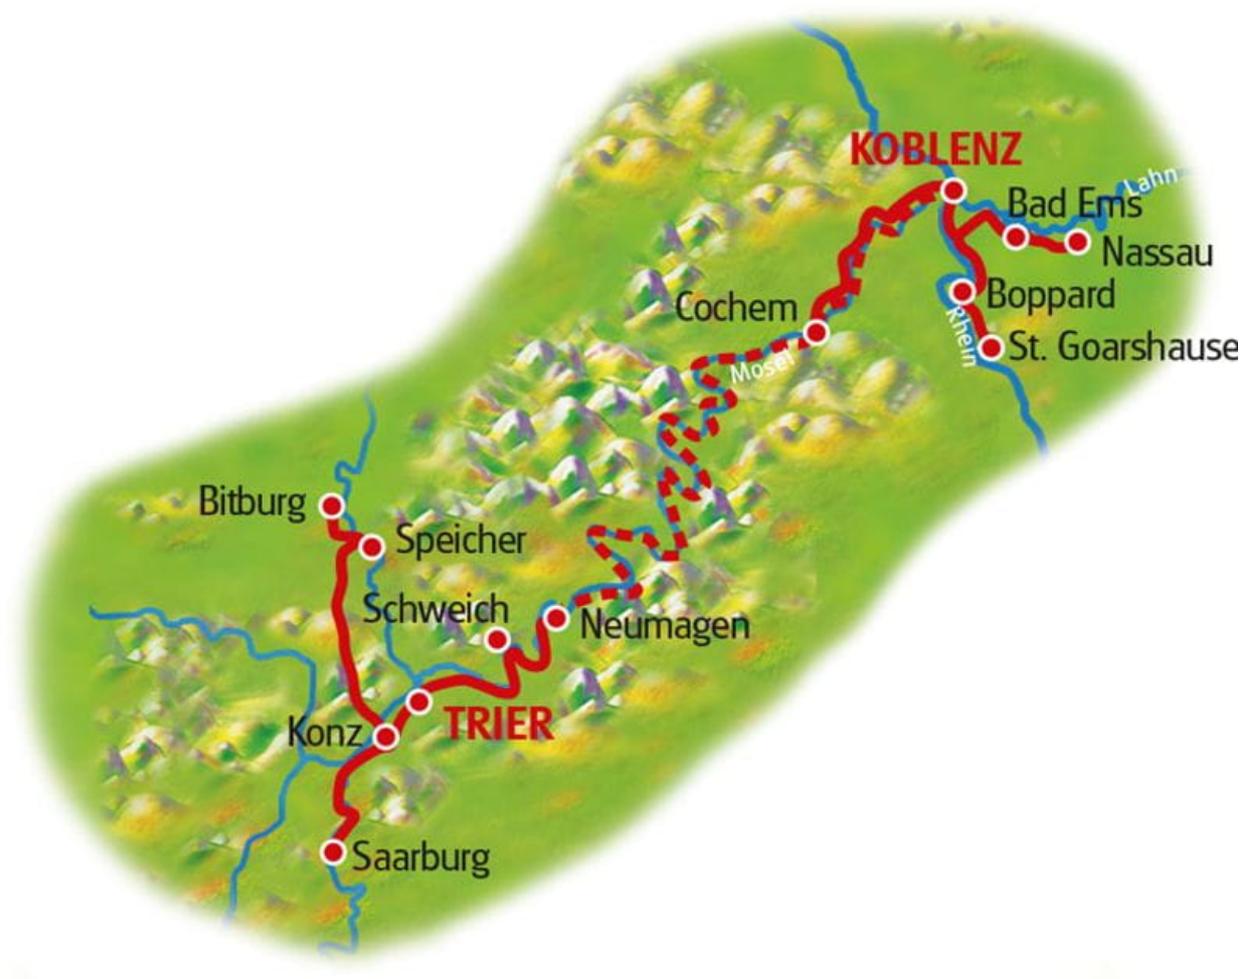

Departure or extension

Your tour finishes after breakfast. If you are interested in we would be pleased to book some extra nights for you or we bring you back to Coblenz by private transfer.

Tour character

All routes are relatively flat and dispose of an excellent signposting. Often you cycle on bicycle tracks and small side roads with less traffic. Only at the respective entrances and exits of the towns you have to expect higher traffic volume. Altogether a relatively simple bike tour which almost requires no basic condition.
