Self-guided loop tour | 8/7 | approx. 303 km |

DESCRIPTION

Piedmont is a real paradise for gourmets! Fantastic wines, first-class truffles, tasty chocolate and an artful kitchen attract gourmets from all over the world to visit this region. An awesome landscape assures variety for the cycle tours. The first capital of Italy – Torino – is also named “Little Paris”. You will feel the French flair! Stroll through the numerous medieval alleys in the small villages. You will get together with various treasuries of culinary, architectural or cultural nature! To discover Piedmont by bike is really an awesome experience!

HIGHLIGHTS

Enjoy exquisite cuisine in Piedmont, from Barolo to white truffles and fine chocolate. Great architecture and museums characterize Torino's cityscape, while vineyards and castle complexes line the bike paths.

DIFFICULTY LEVEL CHALLENGING

You cycle on bike paths and side roads. The first two stages are predominantly flat. Afterwards the tour course has a rather hilly routing. On the stage from Bra to Barolo to Alba there are also a few longer ascents to cycle. In the cities you cycle on roads with heavier traffic.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Torino

Turin is an elegant city at the foot of the Alps. Discover magnificent squares, historic arcades, impressive palaces, and lively cafés. Enjoy a stroll along the Po River or through one of the city's beautiful parks. A highlight is a visit to the Mole Antonelliana, the city's landmark, which houses a film museum.

Day 2: Torino – Pinerolo

49 km | 250 m 90 m

On bike paths and side roads you cycle along the river Po. You should take your time for the rococo palace of Stupinigi which was designed by the architect Filippo Juvarra. This palace was the residence for the family of Savoyen for many years. Through parks and along rivers you continue to Penerolo, which is famous for its well-known cavalry school.

Hotel example: Albergo Regina

Day 3: Pinerolo – Saluzzo

46 km | 130 m 160 m

You cycle on beautiful paths along fruit orchards and vineyards to Cavour with its quaint fortress "Rocca" – a hill in the middle of flat landscape. You will then reach medieval Saluzzo.

Day 4: Saluzzo – Bra

70 km | 410 m 480 m

Today you will pass the beautiful palaces of Manta and Costigliole. You should visit Benevagienna – a city with Roman roots – and its archaeological excavations. Afterwards you continue to Cherasco and Bra, which is the capital of gourmets. The organisation "Slow Food" was founded here.

Day 5: Bra – Barolo – Alba

50 km | 790 m 890 m

In Pollenzo – also a city with Roman roots – the University of "tastefulness" is located. After Barolo you have to manage some hills, but you will be "compensated" with Italians best wine afterwards. You have to taste! Along the river Tanaro you continue to Alba (very famous for truffles).

Hotel example: Hotel Calissano

Day 6: Alba – Asti

40 km | 490 m 550 m

Today you cycle in the region of Roero. On your way you will see the palaces of Guarene and Cisterna – the museum can be visited. Your overnight stay is in Asti which is a very cultural city. It is famous for its sparkling wine and the rivalry of Palio.

Hotel example: Hotel Aleramo

Day 7: Asti – Torino

48 km | 350 m 190 m

Your tour leads you on secondary paths and along small rivers back to Torino where you first started your tour. On your way, you will see romantic villages. In Chieri, tasty vines tempt you to have another glass of wine before travelling back to Torino by train.

SUSTAINABILITY ON THE WAY

With every decision we make - be it in the selection of our hotel partners, the resource-saving realisation of your travel documents or the promotion of local value creation - we are consciously taking steps towards a more sustainable future. Our commitment has already been officially confirmed and certified by Travelife - a significant milestone that we are proud of. But our journey is just beginning. Only by traveling mindfully today can we still experience the beauty of unspoiled nature up close in the future.

With an active holiday, you are opting for an extremely climate-friendly form of travel. We are aware that even this generates a certain amount of CO2 emissions. The emissions caused are calculated using the internationally recognised 'Carmacal' CO2 calculator and offset by supporting carefully selected climate protection projects. An overview of emissions in the areas of transport, accommodation, activities and on-site catering can be found on our website.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

For a stress-free start to your travel, arriving at the start point by early evening the day before is recommended. The individual return journey takes place on the last day of travel. For any costs incurred locally (children, local taxes, dogs etc.), as well as excluded transport and services, please refer to the itinerary or the section "Services/Things to note". If a minimum number of participants is necessary for the trip to take place, this is defined under "Arrival dates". If the minimum number of participants is not reached, we reserve the right to cancel the tour by the time specified under the heading "Arrival dates" before the planned travel date. We recommend organising your arrival and departure only after this deadline has passed. The distance travelled is approximate and may differ from the actual distance. The language in which the listed services are provided, as far as this is relevant for the provision of services, can be found under the heading "Services". If special passport or visa requirements are needed for EU citizens, this is indicated under "Arrival/Parking/Departure". This trip is not suitable for people with reduced mobility. Travel cancellation insurance, including travel interruption insurance is recommended. Information on insurance options to cover the cost of assistance during the journey, including transport in case of accident, illness or death can be found at https://www.eurobike.at/travel-insurance
